

A Level English Literature

Summer Transition Work 2022

Welcome to A Level English Literature

Thank you for choosing A Level English Literature at Longsands Sixth Form. We're really pleased that you have decided to continue your journey with English, and we look forward to meeting you in September. Please complete the following before your first lesson in September.

TASK ONE: Reading Academic Articles

Read and makes notes on these two articles on Shakespearean and Greek Tragedy.

(Optional) TASK TWO: Reading A Novel Of Your Own Choice

Read a novel of your own choice, alongside the following tasks, and be ready to talk about it with the class. This could be another novel from some of the writers you have encountered earlier in school but it is up to you! You can find a list of recommendations on www.schoolreadinglist.co.uk

If you have any questions about the transition work, or would like more of it, then please email Mr R Owen (Head of English) on robin.owen@astrea-longands.org
